shanghai

Shanghai is growing and developing at a breakneck pace; outward and most certainly skywards! Its new skyscrapers reflect a city embraced by its own innovative revolution. Shanghai is a city twirling with cultural change. Since China has opened her economic doors to the outside world, Shanghai has reclaimed its position as a thriving, vibrant and bustling destination.

beijing

From the massive extent of the Forbidden City to the towering stones of the Great Wall; Beijing is host to some of the World's greatest monuments ever built by mankind. It's a living testament to the wealth and depth of China's history and culture. Even as this 800 year old Capital captures the nation's political, economic and educational pulse; visitors can still behold the old world charm and grace of this ancient city.

Hong Kong is a vibrant city, brimming with excitement and the allure of the mysterious Orient. With an ancient trading history, the charm of Hong Kong still lures modern day travelers with its blend of eastern mystique, modern facilities and outstanding service.

Hong Kong's bustling harbor, with its flotilla of junks and sampans, comes ablaze at night with the surrounding neon lights. The streets are a riot of color, vibrancy and taste sensations.

The city's hotels are rated among the best in the world. One of the most efficient and successful business centers in the world, this pulsating city is the ideal setting for the meeting and incentive traveler.
